

The Lipman Letter Issue #2 April 24, 2019

Meet the 2019 Honorees

We are extremely proud to introduce you to this year's Lipman Family Prize honorees. We hope you can join us for the Awards Celebration on April 26 in Philadelphia. We'll announce the Grand Prize winner on social media as soon as we've announced it from the stage, so even if you can't join us in person, you can celebrate with us online, via Facebook and twitter.

ACEV: Mother Child Education Foundation Research Done Right Can Change the World

ACEV - the Mother Child Education Foundation - was born from a comprehensive research study on preschool education conducted from 1982 to 1986 by three professors from Boğaziçi University in Istanbul, Turkey. The randomized control trial showed that early childhood education in Turkey was deeply inadequate, and most children had no access to education in early years. As a result, they developed a home-based preschool education program called the Mother Child Education Program.

The Global FoodBanking Network Feeding Families, Fueling Innovation

When a dreamer and a doer team up to tackle a problem, there's almost nothing that can stop them. That's what happened when Bill Rudnick, a man of vision, and Bob Forney, a man of action, set out to start a global foodbanking organization.

World Bicycle Relief Pedal Empowerment

For kids in America, a bicycle represents freedom and fun. But for girls like Belita in rural Africa, a bicycle brings empowerment. Before receiving her Buffalo Bicycle from World Bicycle Relief, 14-year-old Belita wasn't able to help her grandmother with morning household chores. That all changed when she was chosen to receive a bicycle by World Bicycle Relief's Bicycle Education Empowerment Program.
